

Email: chair.apex@gmail.com

Website: www.myapex.xyz

1. The objects for which the Society has been formed shall be the following

- To promote cooperation and cordial relation among professionals.
- To further and protect the legitimate interest of its members.
- To uplift the status and interest of its members.
- To uphold the honor and dignity of the nation.
- To work towards bringing a positive change in the society for the betterment of the nation.
- To bring together people from different professions and create common goals, to be achieved by combined effort of the members.
- To stand for and support any kind of activity or movement which the Society feels is beneficial for the members, the society or the nation at large.
- To do all other activities felt necessary for the benefit of the members and public as decided by the Governing Council.
- The Society shall not discriminate on the basis of caste, tribe and religious denomination.
- The Society will stand for and provide possible support required for the team members in their professional field - technical or non-technical, address their issues, and also work for their betterment
- The Society also aim to promote and support members on their contribution in the field of art, literature, films, music etc. and also to help them gain necessary platforms in their by promoting short films, exhibitions, whereby people of common interests can work together as a team.
- The Society will stand for its members' betterment and also, at the same time work for the development of the society and the nation.

Any other object of general public utility, with the prior permission of the Commissioner of Income Tax having jurisdiction.

2. Management

The management and administration of the Society shall be by a Governing Council made up of the following office bearers

President, Secretary, Treasurer and two members

3. Powers of the Governing Council

The governing Council shall have the following powers

- (a) To accept any donation, contribution, grant or subscription in cash or in kind, from any person(s), body of persons or Society, with or without conditions.

- (b) To apply the whole or any part of the income of the Society, or the Society fund or accumulations thereto, to any one or more of the objects of the Society, as the Governing Council may, in their discretion, deem fit from time to time.
- (c) To convert and deal with the Society property and/or any investments for the time being.
- (d) To invest the Society Fund either in the purpose of mortgage of immovable property or in shares, stock or debentures or other securities and investments, or in deposits with or loans to any company, bank, firm or any other person, and to alter, vary or transpose such investments, from time to time at the discretion of the Governing Council, as provided by the Income Tax act.
- (e) To borrow or raise or secure payments of moneys and also to lend money either with or without security.
- (f) To sell, dispose of, alienate or otherwise deal with any property comprising the Society Fund.
- (g) To let out, demise any immovable property comprised in the Society Fund for such period and at such rent on such terms and conditions as the Governing Council in their discretion may think fit.
- (h) To open account in the name of the Society and/or Institutions run/ conducted by the Society with a Bank or Banks, to operate such account and to give instructions to the Bank and to provide for opening and operation of such account by one or more of the Governing Council Members or by an agent appointed by them.
- (i) To adjust, settle, compromise, compound, refer to arbitration, all actions, suits, claims, demands and proceedings regarding the Society Fund.
- (j) To appoint constituted attorneys or agents and to delegate to such attorneys or agents all or any of the powers vested on them under these presents and from time to time remove such attorneys or agents and to appoint other or others in his or their place.
- (k) To appoint or make provision for the appointment of any person (including all or any of the Governing Council and committees or administrator or Managers or otherwise) for the purpose of the administration of the Society in such manner and subject to such rules and regulation as the Governing Council may prescribe and also to appoint or provide for the appointment of separate Governing Councils to hold any fund or investment subject to the provisions of this Deed in such manner and subject to such rules and regulations as the Governing Council may from time to time think fit.

(l) To make, vary, alter or modify schemes, rules and regulations for carrying out the objects of the Society and for the management of the affairs thereof and/or running any institution in furtherance of the objects of the Society and otherwise for giving effect to the objects of the Society.

(m) To start, abolish, discontinue and restart any charity or charitable institutions for the benefit of general public and to impose any conditions to any subscription or donation made by them.

(n) To set apart and/or allocate the whole or a part of the income or the corpus of the Society Fund or part thereof for any of the objects of the Society.

(o) To join, co-operate or amalgamate this Society with other or others having same or allied objects, upon such terms and conditions as the Governing Council may in their discretion think fit, particularly having regard to and in conformity with the objects and nature of this Society.

(p) To give aid by way of donations out of the income or the corpus of the Society Fund or otherwise, to different charitable institutions, societies, organizations or Societies in India which may have been established or which may hereafter be established for the like charitable purposes mentioned in these presents or any of them to enable such institution, societies, Organisation or Trusts to start maintain, or carry out such charitable objects.

(q) To settle all accounts and to compromise, compound, abandon, or refer to arbitration any action or proceedings or disputes, claim, demand or things, as deemed proper for such purpose without being responsible for any loss occasioned thereby.

(r) To borrow moneys either on the security of any property comprised in the Society Fund or otherwise for all or any of the purposes of these presents, and it shall be lawful for the Governing Council to make such borrowings on payment of such interest and otherwise on such terms and conditions as they may in their absolute discretion think fit.

(s) To apply to the Government, public bodies, urban, local, municipal, district and other bodies, corporation, companies, or persons for and to accept grant of money and of aid, donations, gifts, subscriptions, and other assistance with a view to promoting the objects of the Society and to discuss and negotiate with the Government Departments, public and other bodies corporations, companies or persons, scheme and other work and matters within the objects of the Society and to conform to any proper condition upon which such grants and other payments may be made.

(t) To take over or amalgamate with any other charitable Society, society, association, or institution with similar objects.

(u) To establish, promote, manage, organize or maintain or to assist in establishing, promoting, managing, organizing, or maintaining any branch of the Society or any other Society or its branch with objects similar to those of this Society and to promote or carry on the affiliation or amalgamation of such other Society with this Society.

(v) To take over, acquire, manage, control or aid any existing institution or institutions having objects either wholly or in part similar to the objects of this Society and on such terms and conditions as may be thought expedient.

(w) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the property, assets, liabilities and engagement of any or more of the Society, societies, institutions or associations with which this Society is authorized to amalgamate.

(x) To transfer all or any part of the property, assets, liabilities and engagements of this Society to any one or more of the Society, societies, institutions or associations with which this Society is authorized to amalgamate.

(y) To transfer and hand over the Society to any other Society, Corporation, Institution, Society or Organisation on such terms and conditions as the Governing Council shall in their absolute discretion think fit and proper to be held by the Society, Corporation, Institution, Society or Organisation with the powers, provisions, agreements and declarations, appearing and contained in these presents subject to such modifications as may be necessary and consequent to such transfer of the Society fund.

4. Members

- Any professional in India, irrespective of their field of work, who subscribe to the objectives of the Society, are eligible for the membership of the Society.
- A person will be eligible for membership if he/she applies for and pays a sum of Rs 100/- as an enrollment fee.
- If any question arises, whether a person is eligible to be a member, the decision of the Governing Council shall be final.
- Membership of a member automatically gets terminated if the member ceases to be a citizen of India.

4.1. The Governing Council for the time being will be at liberty to appoint additional Members for such period or on -such terms as to retirement and re-appointment as the members for the time being considered proper.

4.2. A person shall cease to be a Governing Council Member either:

(i) if he without leave of absence does not attend three consecutive meetings of the Governing Council or for one calendar year, whichever is longer, or

(ii) if he is requested to resign by 3/4th or as near thereto as possible of the remaining

Members

4.3. Every member will be at liberty to resign on giving one month's notice of his intention to do so.

5. Meetings

The Members may from time to time frame rules for the conduct and regulations of the meetings Of members . In the absence of such regulations:-

- (a) Three members shall form a quorum for a meeting of the Governing Council.
- (b) All matters will be decided mutually by the Members .
- (c) Resolution passed without any meeting of the Members but by circulation thereof and evidenced in writing under the hands of two thirds of the Members shall be as valid and effectual as a Resolution duly passed at a meeting of Members .

6. Nature of income and expense

The Governing Council shall have the power to determine in case of doubt whether any moneys or property shall for the purpose of the charity be considered as capital or income and whether out of income or capital any expenses or outgoings ought to be paid or borne and every such determination shall be binding and conclusive provided that nothing contained shall be deemed to authorize the Governing Council Members to spend the income or corpus of the Society for any purpose not authorized by these presents.

7. The accounting year of the Society shall be the financial year ending on 31st March.

8. General meetings and minutes of proceedings of such meetings

8.1. The governing body shall convene the first general meeting of the society within 18 months from the date of its registration and thereafter once at least in every calendar year and not more than 15 months after the holding of the last proceeding meeting.

8.2. At the annual general meeting so held, election of members to the governing body shall be made so that the minimum number of persons in the governing body shall be three.

8.3. A list of the members of the first governing body shall be filed with the Registrar within fourteen days from the date of registration of the society and thereafter the list of the governing body shall be filed with the Registrar within fourteen days after the date of the annual general meeting.

9. Termination of Membership

- Any such person who has ceased to be a member can be readmitted at the discretion of the Executive Committee as a new member on payment of his enrolment and membership fees and other dues, to the Society, if any.

- Disciplinary action shall be taken against any member who, in the opinion of the Governing Council, is found working against the interest of the Society, after following the natural course of justice.

No membership shall be so terminated unless the member is given 15 days notice in writing by Registered Post asking him to show cause as to why his membership should not be terminated. If he/she fails to submit any explanation or if his/her explanation is not satisfactory, the Governing Council may terminate his membership

10. Resignation

- A member may resign his membership by submitting to the Secretary of the Society a letter to that effect and paying all his dues to the Society.

Any member who resigns thus is entitled to re-enrollment as a new member as per provisions contained herein

11. Minutes The society shall cause minutes of all proceedings of general meetings to be entered in books kept for the purpose such minutes shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings were had.

12. Property of society how vested.—The property, movable and immovable, belonging to the society, shall be deemed to be vested, for the time being in the governing council of such society, and in all proceedings, civil and criminal, may be described as the property of the governing council of the society.

13. Suits by and against the society.—The society may sue or be sued in the name of the president, or in the name; of such person as shall be appointed by the governing council.

Provided that it shall be competent for any person having a claim for demand against the society, to sue the president or chairman, or principal, secretary or the trustees thereof if on application to the governing council, some other officer or person be not nominated to be the defendant.

14. Suits not to abate.—No suit or proceedings by or against the society in any civil court shall abate or discontinue by reason of the person by or against whom such suit or proceedings shall have been brought or continued dying or ceasing to fill the character in the name whereof he shall have sued, or been sued but the same suit or proceeding shall be continued in the name of or against the successors of such person.

15. Enforcement of decree against society.— If a decree is against the person or officer named on behalf of the society, such decree shall not be executed against the property, movable or immovable, or against the body of such person or officer, but against the property of the society.

16. Books of accounts to be kept by society.—(1) The general body of the society shall cause to be kept proper books of account with respect to—

(a). all sums of money received and expended for and on behalf of the society and the matters in respect of which the receipt and expenditure take place; and

(b). the assets and liabilities of the society.

17. Annual Balance Sheet.—(1) The governing council of the society shall at some date not later than eighteen months after the registration of the society and subsequently once at least in every calendar year lay before the society in general meeting a balance sheet and income and expenditure account for the period, in the case of the first account since the registration of the society and in any other cause since the preceding account made up to a date not earlier than the date of the meeting by more than six months.

(2). The balance sheet and income and expenditure account shall be audited in the case of the first balance sheet and account by a Chartered Accountant appointed by the governing council and in the case of subsequent balance sheet and account, by a Chartered Accountant appointed by the general meeting.

(3). The balance sheet and income and expenditure account shall be signed by at least three members of the governing body when the number of the governing body exceeds three and by all the members when the number is three.

(4). After the balance sheet and income and expenditure account have been laid before the society at the general meeting, a copy of the balance sheet certified by at least two members of the governing council, shall be filed with the Registrar within twenty one days from the date of the general meeting.

18. Society to keep a register of members.—(1) The society shall have a register of its members wherein the following particulars are entered:-

- (a). the names and addresses and the occupation, if any, of the members;
- (b). the date of which each person became a member;
- (c). the date on which any person ceased to be a member.

19. Society enabled to alter, extent or abridge their purposes.—Whenever it shall appear to the governing council of the society, which has been established for any particular purpose or purposes that it is advisable to alter, extend or abridge such purpose to or for other purposes, within the meaning of the Act, or to amalgamate such society, either wholly or partially, with any other society, such governing council may submit the proposition to the members of the society in a written or printed report and may convene a special meeting for the consideration thereof according to the regulations of the society. But no such proposition shall be carried into effect unless such report shall have been delivered or sent by post to every member of the society ten days previous to the special meeting convened by the governing council for the consideration thereof, nor unless such proposition shall have been agreed to by the votes of three-fifth of the members delivered in person or by proxy, and confirmed by the votes of three-fifth of the members present at a second special meeting convened by the governing body at an interval of one month after the former meeting.

20. Amendments to memorandum or the rules and regulations of the society.— When any amendment is made in the provisions of the memorandum or the rules and regulations of the society, a copy of the resolution effecting the amendment, certified to be a correct copy by not less than three members of the governing body shall be filed with the Registrar within fourteen days from the date of the general meeting at which the resolution is passed.

Amendments shall be made only with the prior permission in writing of the Commissioner of Income Tax having jurisdiction.

21. Provision for dissolution of the society and adjustment of their affairs.—Any number not less than three fourths of the members of the society may determine that the society shall be dissolved, and thereupon it shall be dissolved forthwith or at the time then agreed upon, and all necessary steps shall be taken for the disposal and settlement of the property of the society, its claims and liabilities, and if not, then as the governing council shall find expedient:

Provided that, in the event of any dispute arising among the said governing council or the members of the society, the adjustments of its affairs shall be referred to the principal court of original civil jurisdiction of the district in which the registered office of the society is situate; and the court shall make such order in the matter as it shall deem requisite:

Provided further that the society shall not be dissolved unless three-fourths of the members shall have expressed a wish for such dissolution, by their votes delivered in person, or by proxy, at a general meeting convened for the purpose:

22. Upon a dissolution no member to receive profit.—If upon the dissolution of the society, there shall remain after the satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, any property, whatsoever, the same shall not be paid to, or distributed among the members of the society, or any of them, but shall be given to the State Government upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon or to some other society which has for its object the furtherance of aims similar, as near as may be, to be objects of the dissolved society to be determined by the votes of not less than three-fifths of the members present, personally, or by proxy, at the time of the dissolution, or, in default thereof, by such court as aforesaid:

